

POWAY VALLEY GARDEN CLUB

THE OUTREACH PROJECT

Need funding for your community horticultural project? We can help!

PVGC is offering financial aid to fund local projects that encourage participation in gardening and horticultural related activities. The Outreach Project is intended to attract youth organizations and community groups in Poway and surrounding communities.

The Outreach Project is a way of investing back into the local communities while encouraging garden-related projects.

For detailed information and an Outreach Project Application, please visit powayvalleygardenclub.org